Wihan Triegaardt

55830013

Logo:

Infographic:

Reflection:

The hardest part of this assignment for me was visually creating my identity. To be able to display myself without writing paragraphs but rather to change those words into a logo and infographic. Having to choose what represents me best and the things I taken out, even if they matter to me. I removed extra details and kept only that which truly defines me. My design reflects my mindset of struggle, precision and moving forward.